

Exploration Guide

Welcome to Atlanta in 50 Objects!

Look around on the main page of the exhibition.

Can spot how many different types of objects there are? Here are a few categories of stories that we found. List one object in the exhibition that represents each of the following categories:

- Education
- Sports
- Music
- Notable People
- Technology
- Travel

Look and Learn

1. Look for the picture of the microscope and click on it. What is the name of the organization that is responsible for public health?
2. Look for the picture of the ring and click on it. Look closely— In what year did the Braves win the World Series?
3. Look for the button that says Maynard for Mayor and click on it. What was Maynard Jackson the first person to do?
4. Look for the SCLC pamphlet and click on it. Who were the two leaders of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference?
5. Pick one object that you don't recognize. What do you think is the story behind this object?
  - a. After you guess, click on the object. What is the actual story? How similar or different is it to what you thought?
6. Choose two random objects in the exhibition. Imagine how a conversation between those two objects would sound. What would they say to one another? What sort of questions would they ask and how would they answer?
  - a. Write the imagined conversation in the space below.
