Symbols of Our City

Exhibit Hallway
Ongoing, Craft

Most of Atlanta's intown neighborhoods have their own special symbols that residents hang outside to reflect their sense of community. Stop by to learn about the symbols used by Inman Park and Reynoldstown, as well as the history behind these "neighboring" neighborhoods. Then create your own symbol to reflect your history or character.

DiverseCity!

Olympic Exhibit Hallway
10:10am, 10:45am, 11:25am
Duration: 25 minutes

Immerse yourself in the different cultures of Atlanta in an exciting scavenger hunt! We'll explore the ways some of Atlanta's immigrant populations have brought big change to our city. We'll also learn about immigrant influences on the many communities that surround the greater Atlanta area.

The Pieces of Little Five Points

Lower Level Classroom
10:20am, 10:55am, 11:35am
Duration: 25 minutes

Little 5 Points is an iconic area of Atlanta. It is a place where all types of people come together and embrace their differences. Find out how local citizens collaborated in the 1970's to stop a highway that would have destroyed their neighborhood, and how this business district remains one of the most interesting parts of our city.

A Walk Through Washington Park

Gatheround Exhibit
10:30am, 11:05am, 11:45am
Duration: 25 minutes

Washington Park is the first planned Black neighborhood in the city of Atlanta. Constructed around an important park space, the neighborhood was a central area for the Atlanta Black community during the era of segregation. Come walk with us and learn about how the district began, discover how history plays a part in your local community, and imagine how you would build the perfect park.

Cabbage...Town?

West Lobby (Lower Level)
10:40am, 11:15am, 12:00pm
Duration: 25 minutes

Cabbagetown is one of the most unique neighborhoods of Atlanta with its narrow houses, one-way streets, and the historic factory that sits in its background. Learn about Cabbagetown's origins, its unusual name, and the things that make it different from all the other areas of Atlanta. And before you go, compete in our cabbage games just like locals do every year.
