Margaret Mitchell House, Lawns & Trellis Room

The Atlanta History Center has two unique beautiful campuses, our main campus in Buckhead and the Margaret Mitchell House in Midtown.

The Margaret Mitchell House, listed on the National Register of Historic Sites, is the birthplace of Gone with the Wind. Its centrally located Midtown campus includes the apartment where Margaret Mitchell penned the famous novel, an exhibition, historic parlors, a conference room, two event lawns, and a boutique ballroom.

Having recently undergone a complete renovation, this extraordinary venue is charming, fresh, and ready to create history with your event.

The Margaret Mitchell House is owned and operated by the Atlanta History Center, whose main campus is located in Buckhead.

Discover picturesque ambiance among the trees and high rises of this unique urban setting. The three-story Tudor revival home contains four intimate parlor rooms and one event room on two floors with covered porches and balconies, and is surrounded by manicured lawns.

This venue is perfect for small weddings, rehearsal dinners, non-profit, and corporate events. The lawn is great for a backyard barbecue in the middle of the city!

Apartment & Exhibitions

Telling Stories: Gone with the Wind and American Memory

Gone with the Wind—a sweeping romantic epic set against the backdrop of the Civil War and Reconstruction—left an indelible mark on American culture.

Our exhibition explores the book's and film's complex legacy, examining how it shaped perceptions of the American South. It also highlights the cultural phenomenon of the story's popularity and the historical myths it perpetuated about the Civil War and Reconstruction.

For an additional $300, both the apartment where Margaret Mitchell penned the novel, along with the exhibit attached, can be opened for up to one hour for self-guided tours. And to keep the party going, we allow a drink in hand!

Upper Lawn

One of the only event lawns on Peachtree Street, this stunning outdoor space is perfect for wedding ceremonies, cocktail parties, or dinner receptions.

Lower Lawn

For a more intimate garden setting, descend to the Lower Lawn. This charming space is ideal for al fresco cocktails following a ceremony on the Upper Lawn. Guests can also explore the Margaret Mitchell House exhibit through the double doors, built-in entertainment at its finest

Peachtree Parlors

The Peachtree Parlors offer a charming setting for an indoor cocktail hour. The attached covered porch provides a seamless indoor-outdoor experience, ideal for a relaxed soiree. With its inviting, living room-style ambiance, the space accommodates up to 20 guests for a seated private dinner or up to 80 for a cocktail-style reception.

Trellis Room

The Trellis Room, in a historic building, features floor-to-ceiling windows looking onto Peachtree Street, with an open loft feel and exposed ceiling beams. This room can be transformed to fit even the most creative themes.

We can comfortably host up to 80 guests for a seated wedding with a dance floor, using 48" round tables with 6 guests per table. If you seat 8 per table, capacity can increase to 100. For cocktail-style receptions, the space can accommodate up to 120 guests.

Wedding Suite

Located on the top floor of the house, the Wedding Suite features two cozy rooms that can serve as a private retreat for a wedding party. A sliding partition allows for one larger space or two smaller spaces. Capture timeless photos on the hidden Juliet balcony overlooking the lawns.

This suite can also serve as an exclusive bridal suite, ideal for getting-ready photos.

Conference Room

Situated on the top floor, the Conference Room features a TV for presentations and a seating area for breaks.

It also functions as a groom's suite. The TV can be used to watch a game while getting ready, and the large, covered balcony is perfect for relaxing with pals and a cigar.
