Upper Cyclorama

10:00am, 10:35am, 11:10am, 11:45am

Duration: 25 minutes

Join us as we journey through time —engaging sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch. From medieval to modern, students will investigate how medical advancements have influenced communities and changed how we interact with our senses.

Rooted in History

Locomotion Exhibit & Tree Tables

In case of rain: Locomotion Exhibit*

Duration: 25 minutes

Have you ever sipped on a hot cup of tea when you've had a sore throat, or taken a steamy shower to clear your nose when you're sick? Well, these remedies have a history not only across the world, but here in Georgia among Native American and enslaved peoples. Learn more about medical practices as we experiment with different kinds of plants, herbs, and tools used by communities across time!

Medical Atlanta
