Schedule of Activities

Packing for Possibilities

Classrooms

Ongoing, Craft

Pack for the journey ahead and explore different cities and jobs African Americans left the South for. Decorate a suitcase for the possibility of opportunity ahead and test your thinking skills by sorting between what's fact and what's fiction. Every suitcase tells a story – no two are the same!

Green Migrations

Classrooms

10:00am, 10:35am, 11:10am, 11:45am

Duration: 25 minutes

Grab your Green Book and discover the realities of traveling in the United States for African Americans. Through careful planning, you'll map out routes along America's highways, use the guide to decide the safest places to visit, and even uncover hotels and restaurants you've never heard of!

Harlem's Part in Art

Gatheround

10:05am, 10:40am, 11:15am, 11:50am

Duration: 25 minutes

Take a tour through Harlem and explore the art scene during the Great Migration. From Music Halls to Art Studios you'll try famous dances, discover legendary musicians, and even hang out with artists who painted the town. Get ready to experience the importance of arts and community in Harlem together!

Southbound Stories

Olympic Gallery

10:10am, 10:45am, 11:20am, 11:55am

Duration: 25 minutes

Become a historian and play your way through the story of the New Great Migration. Face historic roadblocks, meet inspiring people, and uncover how community, opportunity, and culture shines on this southbound journey. Bring home the gameboard with you to continue exploring!

In Conversation

Kennedy Theater

10:15am, 10:50am, 11:25am, 12:00pm

Duration: 25 minutes

What do you think life looked like for African Americans during the Great Migration? What kind of jobs did they have? How were they treated, and what historical events did they witness? Join us as we listen to the stories of three everyday people, but listen carefully, because it will be your job to record their histories!
