

Position Title: John Burrison Georgia Folklore Archives Intern

Department: Kenan Research Center, in McElreath Hall

Required Commitment Period: Flexible on-site schedule, minimum of 10 hours weekly; 120 hours total.

Start/End Dates: September – December

Application Deadline: Friday, August 14th

General Description

This position is intended to assist the Archivist with a variety of possible tasks depending on projects and inventory needs. Interns will work on a metadata creation project for an oral history collection about folk history, the John Burrison Georgia Folklore Archives recordings: this project includes listening to digitized audio and writing detailed descriptions, subject headings, and short biographical notes.

Key Responsibilities

- Listen to John Burrison Georgia Folklore recordings and write associated content metadata to be published on Atlanta History Center's database of digital content, Album.
- General support to the Archivist and Archives Department.

Desired Skills and Competencies

- Strong writing skills
- MLIS, History, Public History, Folklore, or American studies students preferred.
- Strong research abilities, written and oral communication skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook.
- Strong organizational skills: to communicate effectively and to work independently.
- Able to work and complete tasks under a deadline.
- Sensitivity to cultural and artistic diversity.

TO APPLY: Interested applicants may apply online by filling out the application and attaching their resume, cover letter and a writing sample (biography on a historical figure; 500 words). If you have any questions, contact Volunteer Services at volunteerservices@atlantahistorycenter.com. No phone calls please. This is a non-paid internship.